

GERALD SCHWARTZ SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Part-Time Instructor in Business SCHWARTZ SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The Department of Marketing and Enterprise Systems in the Gerald Schwartz School of Business is inviting applications for a part-time instructor position in Introductory Business for the Winter term, with the appointment beginning in January 2022.

One position is available for delivery of Business Decision Making (BSAD 102). This course will be delivered on-campus (no remote or online course delivery options are available) and ideally during the mornings and/or afternoons.

The candidate should possess a broad background in Business. Candidates will be considered based on their combination of Business education and work experience to support our focus on relevant curriculum and education and our commitment to teaching excellence. Ideally, candidates should possess a graduate degree in business, relevant work experience, and experience with instructional design and/or delivery in a post-secondary context.

The Gerald Schwartz School of Business houses three departments and offers a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree with several degree streams, a post-bac diploma in Enterprise Systems, a co-op option, and multiple international exchange opportunities. St. Francis Xavier University (StFX) is one of Canada's leading primarily undergraduate universities, nestled in the small Nova Scotia town of Antigonish. Our historic residential campus is home to a population of around 4,000 students, one-in-five of whom are in a Business program.

We wish to hear from individuals who have a passion for teaching and who share StFX's values of equity, diversity, and inclusion. Consideration of applications will commence immediately and will continue until the position is filled or the search is cancelled. Interested candidates should send applications, including curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching interests and experiences (if applicable), and the names of three referees to:
