

The Department of Psychology at St. Francis Xavier University is seeking applications for a 9-month limited term appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor or Lecturer commencing September 1, 2021. Preference will be given to candidates with a completed Ph.D. We are looking for instructors with experience or ability to teach Social Psychology (PSYC 250: Social Psychology) and Introductory Psychology (PSYC 101: Psychology as a Natural Science; PSYC 102: Psychology as a Social Science and Profession).

Our preference is for a candidate who can deliver the courses in person, but we will consider applicants who can teach them as online synchronous courses if relocation to Antigonish Nova Scotia is not an option.

The Department is seeking candidates who are committed to contributing to St. FX's priorities of equity, diversity, and inclusion. A demonstrated ability in fostering a climate of inclusion in the classroom is an asset. This position is subject to final budgetary approval.

Electronic submission of a curriculum vitae, letter of application, teaching and research summaries, and the names, addresses (including email) and telephone numbers of three (3) references should be sent via email to:

Dr. Peter McCormick
Chair, Department of Psychology, pamccorm@stfx.ca.
Phone (902) 867-3926, Fax (902) 867-5189.

Consideration of applications will begin August 3, 2021. Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled.

"Only those selected for an interview will be contacted. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents. StFX respects diversity and welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities and members of sexual minority groups".
