

Call for Nominations...

Outreach Award- St. Francis Xavier University

The recipient will be a member of the University faculty or staff who has demonstrated a long and consistent involvement in activities which have brought his/her talents (or the talents of others at the University) to serve the Nova Scotia community. Service beyond or outside that anticipated by one's normal list of duties to the University will be highlighted.

Nominations will be accepted from faculty, staff and the community and should be supported by testimonials from those in the community, or their representatives, who have been served by the faculty/staff member. Nominations will be reviewed by a committee appointed by the President. This award will be presented at Fall Convocation.
