

DURING CLASS

Jump off-Jump in Point

“Now more than ever the condition of nurses’ workplaces, the settings and contexts of nurses’ work, and the realities of contemporary society challenge, on a daily basis, nursing practice and the availability of resources needed to support this practice...[we need] to disrupt the notion that changes to nursing and health care will happen without informed political action on the part of nurses.” (McIntryre & McDonald, 2014, p. x)

Political action by nurses for system change

Team-Based Analysis

Team 1: Historical Analysis

Team 2: Ethical & Legal Analysis

Team 3: Social & Cultural Analysis

Team 4: Political Analysis

Class: Critical Analysis

Trends & Issues course

Deconstructing the Analytical Frame in SCHW 156

Trends & Issues course

Analytical Framework with JENGA in PSC1072

Health in All Policy course

Concept mapping for Challenge-Based Learning Project

SCHW 205

iPads & Reflector App

Example 2:
Youth Engagement in Federal Election

(AFTER CLASS) + BEFORE CLASS

Trends & Issues course

Political Action
...Nursing
...Social Justice

Prep for October Election 2015
In the 2011 federal election, only 38.8 % of Canadians aged 18-24 exercised their right to vote. Despite repeated expressions of concern from elected officials, government officials, and community leaders over the past 20 years, broad and effective action is still needed to address the issue of youth voter engagement. (www.apathyisboring.com)

As requested, I am posting some resources here to help you better understand politics, federal government and its policy, and to generally prepare for the upcoming federal election. CAVEAT: I did my best to recommend non-partisan publicly available educational-type resources. I am not endorsing any one party over another. I leave that to you... Dig in!

- Why the Federal Government Must Lead in Health Care (CMAJ), released Aug 17, 2015)
- VIDEO: CBC The National Cross Country Check Up: The Politics of Health Care (18:52 aired Aug 20, 2015)
- Apathy is Boring - Non-partisan site encouraging youth participation in politics.
- CNA Nursing and the Political Agenda
- The Political Compass - Online Tool
- Understanding Canada's Political System
- What is Canada's Political System?
- Canadian Politics for Dummies version 2.0 (You Tube)
- Political Parties of Canada
- Elections Canada Vote 2015 FAQs
- VIDEO: Canadian Party Leaders Debate - August 6, 2015 (YouTube)